Introductions, Purpose and Prayer

Interview

- We want to begin with a few questions that will allow us to get to know you on a personal level and discuss the factors that led you to Logos Prep.

School Section

1. Parents: Why are you interested in Logos Prep?

2. Elem and Secondary: Why do you want to attend Logos Prep?

LOGOS PREPARATORY ACADEMY

Commitment Overview

On average, students will spend at least an additional hour outside of class for every hour in class. Logos Prep is a full-time program (if the student is taking a full load). Students must attend class on a regular basis. Since class time is limited, family vacations and extra-curricular activities should be scheduled during off times.

You will need to review assignment sheets regularly so that you know the school's expectations of both you and your children and so that all assignments and projects are due on time.

- 3. Parents: Are you willing to commit to that level of involvement and your role as a co-teacher?

- 4. Parents: Who will be the primary parent in your child's education?

- 5. Parents: How will this satellite classroom function in your home?

- 6. Parents: Are there any known obstacles (i.e. time, job, younger siblings, etc.) that you would have to work around?

- 7. Parents: Do you have any apprehensions about Logos Prep or your prospective role in it?

LOGOS PREPARATORY

STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT

*Even a child is known by his actions, by whether his conduct is pure and right.
Proverbs 20:11*

The purpose of the Logos Prep Code of Conduct is to promote a Christ-like attitude in its learning environment and to encourage the development of positive Christian relationships among its students. Therefore, it is important that specific guidelines regarding behavior be set. While on-campus concerns are primary, Logos Prep does reserve the right to address any off-campus conduct deemed to affect on campus relationships, the learning environment, or overall public witness/character of the school with the community.

1. Students should show respect to adults at all times. A title (Mr., Mrs., Coach, etc.) should, therefore, be used when addressing an adult. On the occasion of disagreeing with an adult, the student exercise the process of "Wise Appeal" to enter into dialogue with the adult about the disagreement.
2. Students should treat each other with respect, kindness, purity and compassion just as God commands us in Matthew 7:12, "So in everything do to others what you would have them do to you," and in 2 Timothy 2:22, "Flee the evil desires of youth, and pursue righteousness, faith, love and peace, along with those who call on the Lord out of a pure heart."
3. Logos Prep operates on an honor system with its students. This means that students are expected to be truthful, honest, and upright in their words and actions as a matter of personal conscience and beliefs. Violations of the honor system (lying/dishonesty, impure speech or behavior) in matters pertaining to any facet of school life – academics, activities, and personal relationships – can result in consequences that lead toward expulsion (see Disciplinary Actions in Response to Major Misconduct)
4. The school facility and grounds should be kept clean, orderly, and in a manner which shows an attitude of gratefulness.
5. There will be no horseplay, running, yelling, or rough play during or between classes.
6. Students should conduct themselves at all times in a manner worthy of the gospel of Jesus Christ (Phil. 1:27), taking special care to guard the relationship between Logos Prep and its Kingdom Community Partners like Sugar Creek Baptist Church and Faith Lutheran Church.
7. Logos Prep reserves the right to discipline students for off-campus activities (including those taking place in the Sugar Creek Commons), whether or not those activities are connected with school activities. A Logos Prep student represents the school at all times and is subject to discipline at the discretion of the school for any behavior that impugns the character of the school or that in the sole discretion of Logos Prep otherwise warrants discipline by the school.
8. The use of profanity is not permitted at school or in public forums, including social media.
9. Along these lines, all social media is subject to disciplinary action for, but not limited to, profanity, bullying, derogatory statements about Logos Prep and its teachers/staff/students/families, and promoting inappropriate behaviors.
10. Students may not bring cell phones on campus. They may use a Logos Prep phone if they need to make a call and parents can get a message to their student by calling 281-565-6467.

11. Public displays of affection such as hand-holding, kissing, etc. are not permitted.

12. Tobacco products, illicit drugs, alcohol, or weapons are not allowed on campus or at any school-sponsored event. Infractions of this nature may lead to expulsion.

STATEMENT OF FAITH

As a Christian based discipleship school, staff and board members of Logos Preparatory Academy espouse and firmly believe:

- There is only one true God, existent in three persons: God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit.
- The Bible is the inspired, infallible, inerrant Word of God that has no need of other documents to complete the gospel message.
- After the fall, Man became sinful and can only be saved by God through salvation in Jesus Christ.
- Jesus Christ, the Son of God, born of the Virgin Mary, led a sinless life, performed miracles, died on the cross for our sins, rose again from the dead, ascended to the right hand of God, and will come again to judge the living and the dead.

A parent must sign they are in complete agreement with and submit to the Statement of Faith.
